Systematic Theology
Fuller Theological Seminary

This “short course” is intended to offer Orthodox Christians and seekers greater insights into the theological foundations of the Orthodox Faith. Dr. Eve Tibbs (PhD, Theology) has made Orthodox theological concepts accessible to her students at all levels of inquiry. The fast-moving format is a combination of lecture with visual presentation, discussion, and occasional video. The course is appropriate for adults and older teens, with or without any previous theological study. No homework.
