

The 2020-2021 Catholic/Orthodox Book Club

The Orthodox/Catholic Book Club meets at these three local parishes: St. Paul's Greek Orthodox Church (Irvine), St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church (Irvine) and St. Paul's Coptic Orthodox Church (Tustin). We gather together once each month for ecumenical dialogue and prayer, to explore our common roots in the early centuries of Christian history and to explore a common path for Roman Catholic and Orthodox Christians in living a Spirit-filled, Christ-centered life in 21st century Orange County.

Meetings are the 2nd Tuesday of the month:

September 8th (opening potluck @ 6:30PM) - The Silent Patriarch by Daniel Fanous @ St. Paul Coptic Orthodox Church

October 13th @ 7PM - Bread that is Broken by Wilfrid Stinissen @ St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church

November 10th @ 7PM - For the Life of the World by Alexander Schmemmann @ St. Paul's Greek Orthodox Church

December 8th @ 7PM - From Darkness to Light edited by Anne Field @ St. Paul Coptic Orthodox Church

January 12th @ 7PM - The Holy Spirit: Fire of Divine Love by Wilfred Stinissen @ St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church

February 9th @ 7PM - The Giver of Life: The Holy Spirit in the Orthodox Tradition by John Oliver @ St. Paul's Greek Orthodox Church

March 9th @ 7PM - Sojourners: Monastic Letters and Spiritual Teachings by Matthew the Poor @ St. Paul Coptic Orthodox Church

April 13th @ 7PM - Love and Living by Thomas Merton @ St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church

May 10th (end-of-the-year potluck @ 6:30PM) - Following Jesus by Henri Nouwen @ St. Paul's Greek Orthodox Church
